Today is a special day for the Church of Scotland in our area. The three churches of St Andrew, Trinity & St Paul and the Old Parish will cease to many years and we offer our prayers for the future. Over the next year a decision will be made concerning which church building will be the chosen place in which the parish community will worship.

Icons

The new icons of St John the Baptist and the Blessed Virgin have arrived. I am sure that you will agree that they are very striking. Icons are painted by the artist with great prayer and faith. Those that look towards the icon receive a blessing, they know the love and protection of God in their life.
