Website

Plans are underway to continue the development of our parish website. At present features of the website are: a latest news section, the bulletin and homilies online & photo gallery. Additional pages that are due to be included are an adult Catholic education page and a page for children and families. Thank you to one of our parishioners who is doing all this work on our behalf. Use of the website is increasing with 300-400 visits each week. Over 50 people regularly use the online service for the bulletin.
