Windows

There has been a positive response to the new windows, a model of one was fitted over the last 10 days. I acknowledge some of the misgivings that some people feel about the timing of the work and the cost, but maintain that it will create a building more fit for the worship of God. Envelopes will be available over the next few weeks. If you can, and you wish to, you are asked to donate to the window fund. Thank you for individual donations that have already been given.
