September weekend

This weekend is a time of rest for many working people. We hope that everyone who is on holiday at this time has a well deserved rest.

Society of St Vincent de Paul

The parish has always been very generous in supporting SSVP through our Sunday collections. However, energy and food prices are soaring and although many are all feeling the pinch, the poor are being hit particularly hard. The demand on SSVP funds is increasing. A recent "windfall" of £500 has already been spent and with the onset of winter we anticipate more demands will be made. Very reluctantly we ask, if it is possible, that a little extra be put in your SSVP collection each week. Thank you again for all your past generosity.
