Christmas Message

Christmas is not the greatest feast of the Church's year, Easter will always be the greatest feast. But there is always something heart warming that makes Christmas everyone's favourite day of the year. That is why we value the great act at the heart of the day, God gave his only Son for us and to be one with us.

This was the greatest

Christmas gift given to us. In the presents we give to our nearest and dearest, we reflect God's generosity to us in the sending of his only Son. I wish all of you a very happy and holy Christmas.

Message of Peace 2008

At the beginning of a New Year, I wish to send my fervent good wishes for peace, together with a heartfelt message of hope to men and women throughout the world. I do so by offering for our common reflection the theme which I have placed at the beginning of this message. It is one which I consider particularly important: the human family, a community of peace. The first form of communion between persons is that born of the love of a man and a woman who decide to enter a stable union in order to build together a new family. But the peoples of the earth, too, are called to build relationships of solidarity and cooperation among themselves, as befits members of the one human family: "All peoples"- as the Second Vatican Council declared -"are one community and have one origin, because God caused the whole human race to dwell on the face of the earth (cf. Acts 17:26); they also have one final end, God"

H.H. Pope Benedict XVI
